Dues paid for PAPGA membership are not deductible as a charitable expense on your federal income tax return. They may be deductible as a trade or business expenses if ordinary and necessary in the conduct of your business as the portion of the dues attributed to activities defined by the Internal Revenue Service as "lobbying expense" is not deductible. 15 % of PAPGA dues for 2025 are allocated to lobbying expenses and are not deductible for income tax purposes.

When applying for membership, note that the application and subsequent acceptance of membership is conditional upon approval by the PAPGA Board of Directors, and will be acted upon at the next scheduled board meeting. In the interim, all rights and privileges of membership, except the right to vote, if applicable, will be permitted.
